She was a member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences. Biography Márta Földes was born into an artistic family in Budapest in 1925. Her father, Gyula Földes, was a Hungarian opera singer, her mother was actress Erzsi Földes and her younger sister Magda Földes was also an actress. Her paternal grandfather Gyula Földes was a Hungarian actor and her great-grandfather Jenő Földes was a Hungarian painter. Márta Földes started her career in the 1940s at the age of 15 years, and was considered one of the most beautiful actresses of her time. She was a member of the artistic group "Onkel Tök" (Uncle Tök) alongside Péter Andorfi. The group started in 1947, produced several theatrical plays and films. Their films earned them a reputation of being one of the most interesting film groups in Hungary at the time. The group existed until 1948, when their film career was interrupted by the political events of the Soviet occupation of Hungary. After the end of the Second World War she worked in theatre, for example in the role of Laurette in "Lulu". She also participated in the television show "Ötödök nélkül" (I'm going to work without a master), 82157476af
