Trump also reaffirmed his intention to close the southern border. "We have to have the border wall," he said. On another controversial policy, Trump suggested he would extend the executive order barring entry to the U.S. to people from certain majority Muslim countries. "We are going to do something very strong with respect to the terror coming into our country," he said. Trump also reiterated his promise to deport the more than 2 million undocumented immigrants who were brought to the country as children and to build a wall along the U.S.-Mexico border. The meeting was not open to the press and, according to CNN's Jim Acosta, Trump refused to answer a question about 82157476af
